Training programme held for faculty

| TALK TEAM |

A six-day faculty development training programme (FDTP) on 'Machine Learning and Data manipulation using R and SQL' was organised by the Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering of Sri Sairam Engineering College from 30 October to 6 November.

A release said around 25 faculty from various institutions in and around Chennai attended the FDTP.

Sessions were handled by CTS, Chennai, lead software engineer Kalairaj Rajendran and Sri Sairam Engineering College, ECE department, assistant professor U Jayachandiran.

Apart from hands on lab sessions, various topics were also handled. The FDTP was concluded with valedictory function headed by college principal A Rajendra Prasad.

Head of the department J Raja, coordinators S Kohila and V Sasikala participated.